

To the Reys,

I have just learnt about your trust from a riding friend. I too had a fall, and am a little worse off now than I used to be, but I offer my praise and admiration for the way in which you are dealing with Nicholas's fall. At least I can walk and talk again, and I can take care of myself. I shall in the future again find work, albeit not as a pharmacist. The brain at the moment is too unreliable, but my two years is not yet up, so I live in hope.

She said that I should have a look at your site, so now I have done so. I ask for nothing, but I am more grateful now than before, because I got off lightly. I had to re-home my beautiful companion, and that is the only thing that gets to me, but I am not in a position to care for him, and he has found a good home, thank God.

My thoughts and prayers go to you and Nicholas. May you have love and happiness.

Kind regards,

Denise Kerr - Back home at last, since Fri 12th Feb. 2010 (10 months later)